

April Newsletter

"To learn, play and be well together."

Spring 2024 Measurable Results Assessment Survey results:

We had 78 parent survey responses for the MRA survey; exceeding our target of 60 responses. Thank you for your participation in this survey!

The feedback permits us to be responsive to the characteristics and growth of our school in Culture, Leadership and Academics for the upcoming 2024-2025 school year.

Each score is generated through analyses among staff, student and parent responses to the survey.

90-100- Exemplary

80-89- Effective

70-79- Satisfactory

50-69- Needs Improvement

0-49- Ineffective

LEADERSHIP

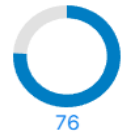

77

CULTURE

81

ACADEMICS

76

We will share additional, specific details of the survey results during the ISS break out session following the Tri-School Council meeting on April 23rd.

Scholastic Book Fair is coming:

Our school Book Fair will be held April 18th and April 19th in the Science Room. Students will have the opportunity to visit the book fair with their class to preview titles on Wednesday, April 17th. The Book Fair will be open for purchasing items on April 18th and 19th during regular school hours. Families are welcome to attend our Book Fair on these days as well.

A portion of the revenue from the Book Fair is used to purchase books for our own Learning Commons. Thank you for supporting literacy and building our collection of titles in the Learning Commons!

April Student Led Assembly:

This month, members of the ISS Student Council will lead our school wide assembly to build an understanding of synergy. This is Habit 6 where we learn and practice that "together is better". We will share the date and time of this assembly once it has been confirmed.

Important Dates:

April 23rd- Tri-School Council, 6:15pm at CCHS (Learning Commons)

April 26, School Based Professional Development Day (no school for students)